In Loving Memory

Staceyann Houghton

November 13, 1992
Born August 27, 1975

God Saw you getting Tired
And a Cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "come to Me"
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the best.

Forever Young

May the good lord be with you down every road you roam.
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home.

And may you grow to be proud, dignified, and true.
And do unto others as you'd have done to you.

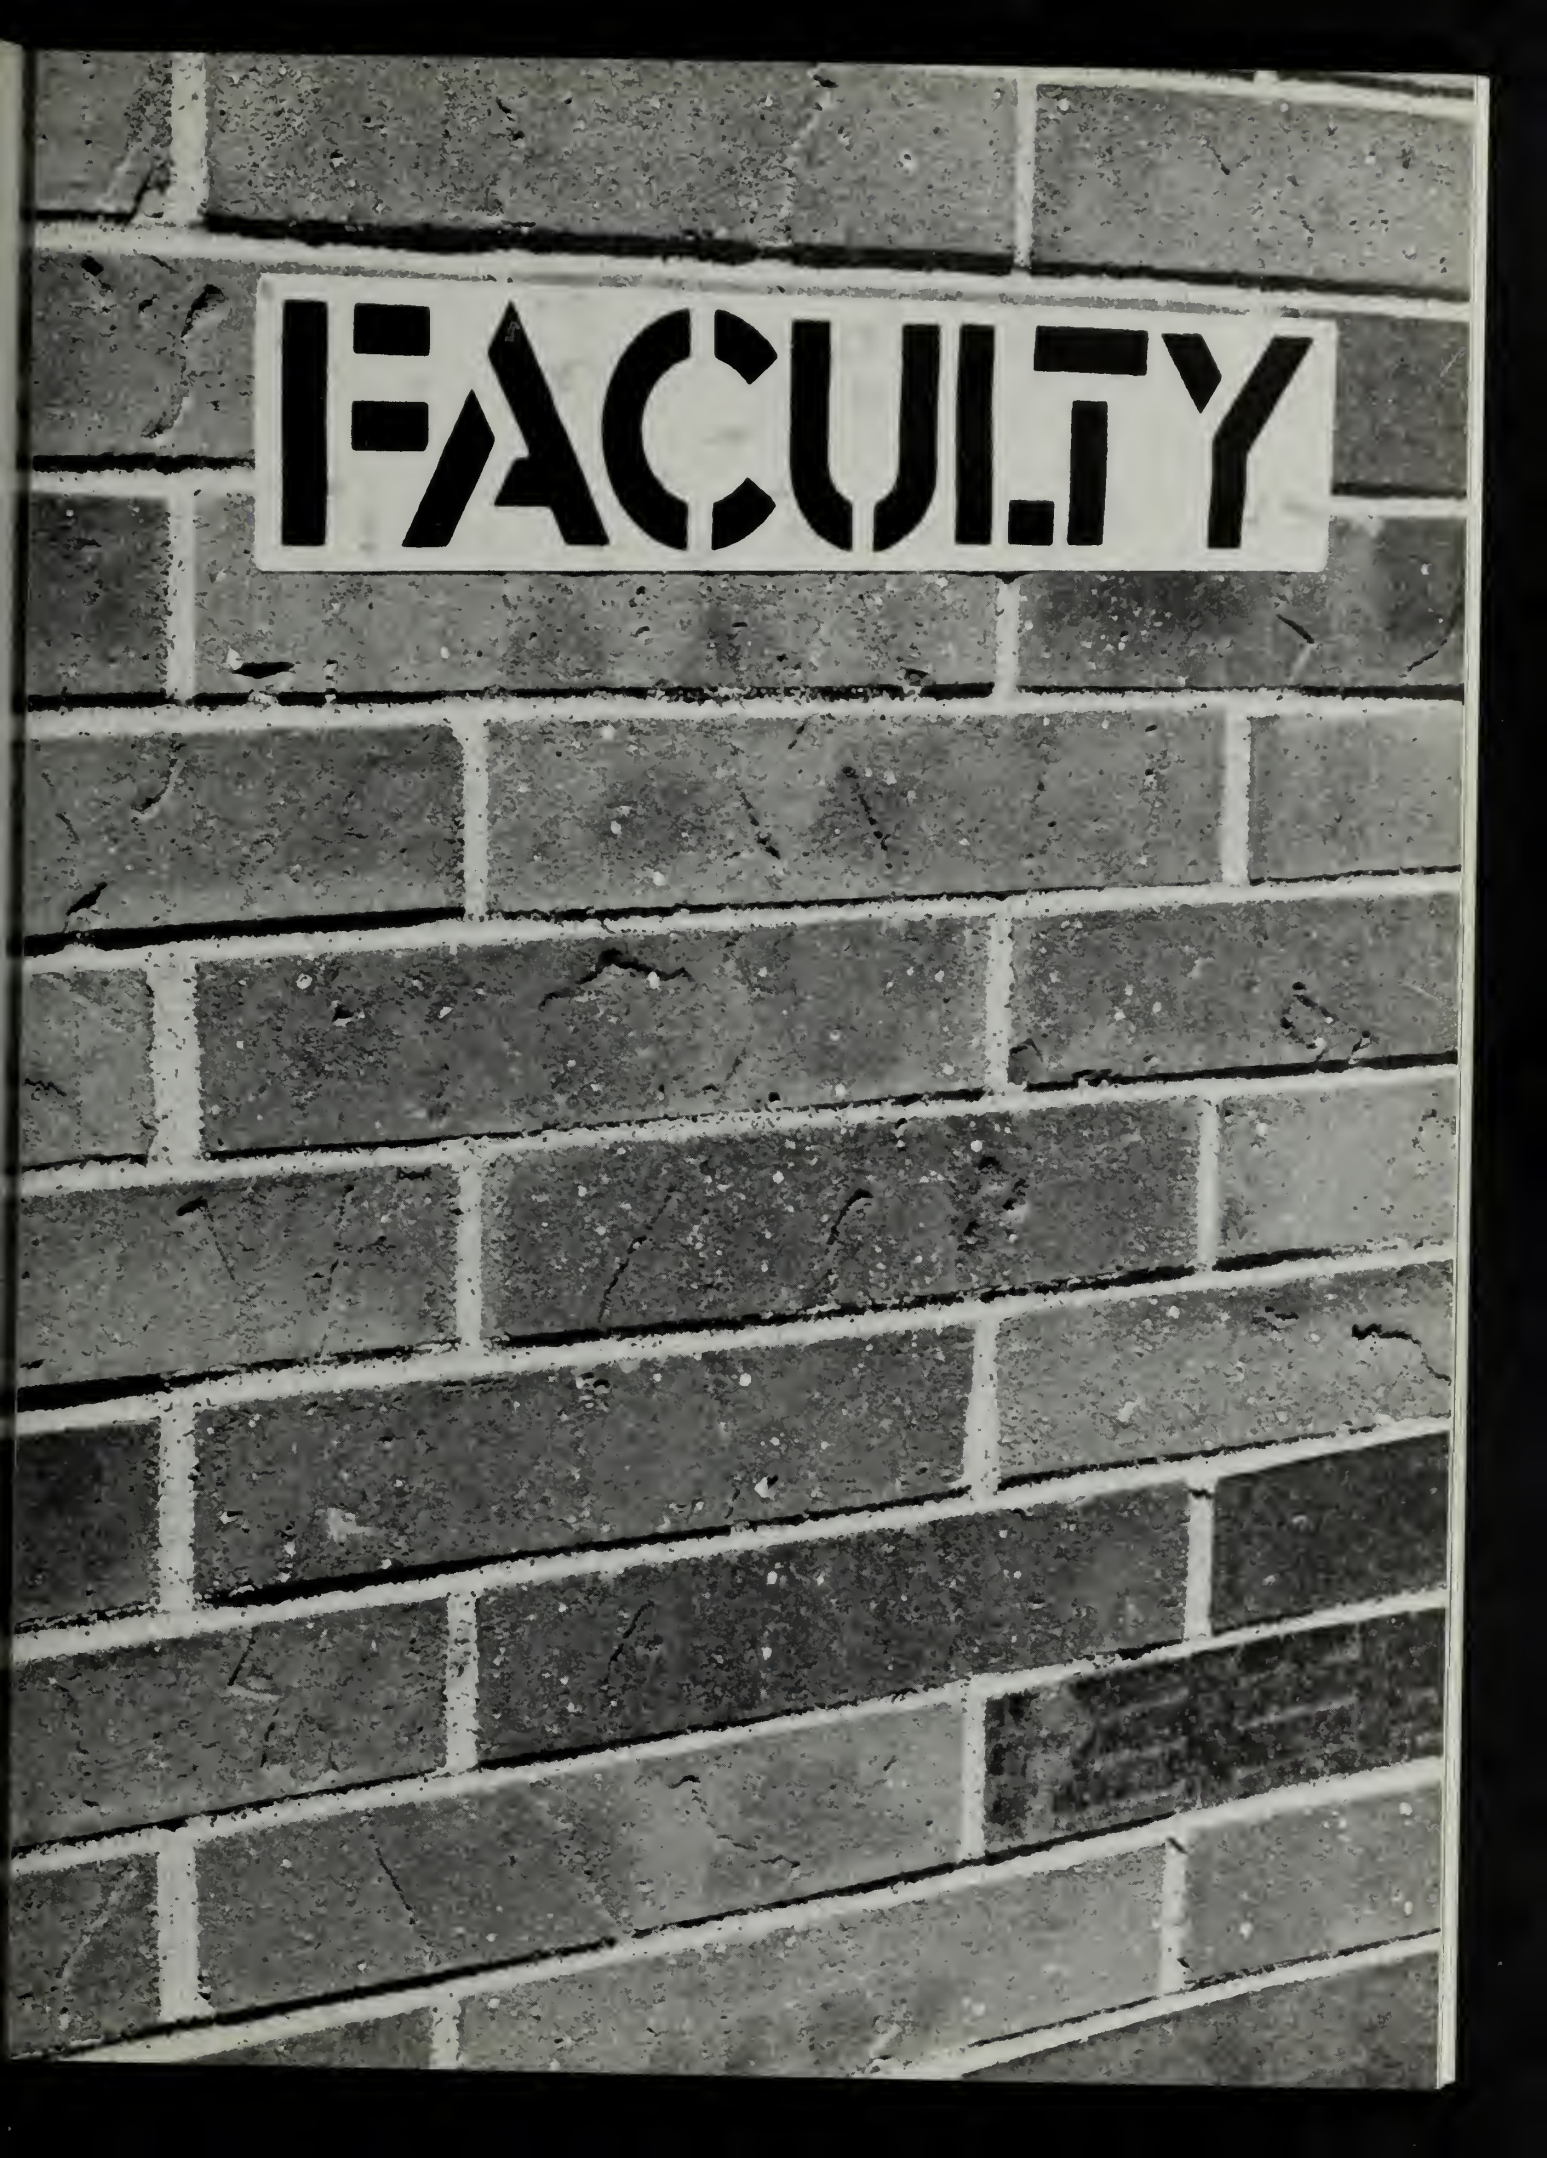

Be courageous and be brave, and in my heart you'll always stay Forever Young.

May good fortune be with you, may your guiding light be strong.

Build a stairway to heaven where the prince is a vagabound.
And may you never love in vain, and in my heart you will remain Forever Young.

And when you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well, for all the wisdom of a lifetime no one can ever tell.

But whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you win or lose Forever Young.

A black and white photograph of a brick wall. A rectangular sign is mounted on the wall, featuring the word "FACULTY" in a bold, sans-serif font. The sign is light-colored, contrasting with the dark bricks. The bricks are arranged in a standard running bond pattern, and the mortar joints are visible. The lighting creates shadows that emphasize the texture of the bricks.

FACULTY

Office Of The Superintendent

Dear Senior:

Congratulations! Your hard work and perseverance have paid off and you will soon graduate from Winthrop High School.

I am very proud of you and your classmates for the strength and intelligence you have displayed during the past four years. As you know we have been in a financially difficult period both on the State and Federal Levels and many cuts had to be made to protect the quality of our programs. You and your classmates truly made the most of our difficulties and turned your High School years into the most productive and successful in many years.

Keep working hard for your beliefs and I know that you will be successful.

There is great hope for our society when the young adults are as capable and competent as you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Laino

Office Of The Principal

To The Class of 1993:

Congratulations on the successful completion of your high school education. Your family, friends, teachers and the administration of Winthrop High School are very proud of you.

Please remember that your high school education is only a foundation in pursuing life long goals. Pursuant of these goals, be assured that the doors of Winthrop High School and all of our resources will always be open to you.

During the last four years, I have had the opportunity to meet and interact with each of you. It has been a pleasure to work with you and your classmates.

May your memories of Winthrop High School be pleasant ones and may your future be filled with happiness and success.

The very best to every one of you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Mauro

Dear Class of 1993:

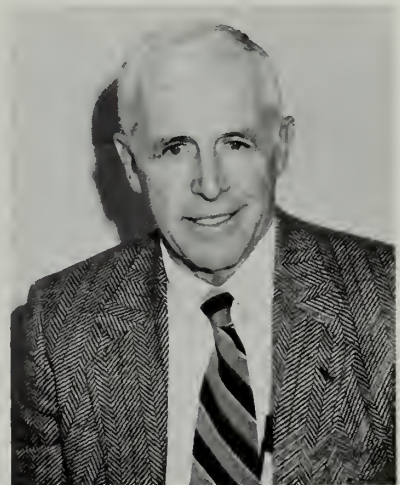

I wish all of you the very best in all your endeavors. It has been a great pleasure working with you these past years and I am proud of your contributions to Winthrop High School.

This is a very special graduation in that I am concluding 37 years with the Winthrop School Department. It has been a most productive and enjoyable career, including teaching, coaching, and administration. It is with enthusiasm that we experience commencement together and hope for a most productive future.

Sincerely,

Karyn,
From your first day school to your high school graduation, Dad and I have always been very proud of you.
Love you always, Mom

Mi hija especial, Diane Muchas gracias por diez y ocho anos terrificos. Tu eres nuestra alegría. Buena suerte en la universidad.
Te queremos mucho, Tus padres y
hermano.

Brett,
You have always made me proud to say you are my son. May you find happiness and satisfaction in whatever you do.
Love, Mom

Jennifer,
Your whole family is proud of the wonderful young lady you have become. May your future be happy and successful.
We love you, Mom and Dad

Lal,
You have always made us happy
and proud and have given us so many special memories.
Congratulations!
We love you, Mom, Dad and Patrick

Tyese,
You started as a seed and we helped shape your roots, yet the time has come so quickly. We are so proud to see what a lovely flower
you have become.
With all our love, Mom, Dad, and Albie

Debbie,
Congratulations! Best of luck in college and always. We are so proud of you. Stay as sweet as today.
Love, Mom, Dad, Jeff, Sandra and Mamama

Anthony,
From the day you were born you brought sunshine into our lives.
May this sunshine follow you, always. We are so very proud of you.
Love, Ma and Dad

Kerry,
Yesterday a baby, today a young woman. You can be whatever you want to be just follow your dreams.
Thanks for adopting me, Stinky.

and sharp interest and understanding in old or young.

Every home should have a HAND-MADE PLANT ALBUM. It is the M.O.M. It is informative, it is fascinating, it has knowledge—valuable knowledge, as the disposal of every member of the family. It answers a thousand questions! It furnishes thousands subjects for study and discussion—as basis for a gathering of men and women. Thousands in Europe have changed. There are now millions more of us aware and alert. If you're ever confused at first, try writing to me one time a week. We'll be filled with a wealth of new ideas that will transform you.

Russia's dismal economy kept President Yeltsin off balance as the new democracy struggled to adopt capitalism.

Change was the worldwide watchword of 1993. The mantle of power in America changed generations as well as parties. • Baby-boomer/Democrat Bill Clinton defeated WWII-generation/Republican George Bush. • Inspired by a desire for change and by the plain-talking Independent Texas billionaire candidate H. Ross Perot, voters came out in the largest numbers on record to give a landslide win to the new moderate Democrats. • America's youth voted for change: 18-24 year olds voted 47% for Clinton, 31% for Bush, 22% for Perot. • Teens' most important issues: AIDS, the environment, jobs, education. • 1993 also saw minorities coming into power in the U.S. as over 90 congressional seats went to female, African-American, or Hispanic electees. • This was the first year of the European Unification, the economic stabilization plan to remove tariffs and unify European currency. • Two years after the Gulf War, the U.S. led allied air raids against Iraq as they violated the cease-fire, U.N. resolutions. • French-speaking Quebec lost another bid for independence from Canada. • Too much unsafe sex among heterosexuals prompted world health officials to predict a huge AIDS explosion in the coming year. • Drought plagued the east African country of Somalia, while its bloody civil war prompted a relief aid effort from the U.N. aided by the U.S. Marines. • In Britain, Windsor Castle burned, Queen Elizabeth II agreed to pay taxes, while Prince Charles and Princess Diana publicly separated. • Space satellite Cosmic Background Explorer transmitted evidence in support of the Big Bang theory of the galaxies. • Argentina unearthed Eoraptor, a primitive ancestor of Tyrannosaurus Rex. • Rigoberta Menchu, a Quiche Indian of Guatemala, received the Nobel Prize for Peace.

Been there

The hosts talked and the rest of us watched Oprah Winfrey, Sally Jessy Raphael, and Geraldo Rivera to compare lifestyles with their weird and wonderful guests.

The TV show "Northern Exposure" influenced fashion trends. T-shirts, plaid shirts, baggy jeans, and boots fashionable, as well as "Chris" hair.

Shoppin' large: The Mall of America made world news as the second biggest mall on earth with 4.2 million square feet of shops.

Everywhere, feet flew across the pavement on in-line skates.

It was a year of "alternative-as-mainstream" in lifestyles. • The biker/loner/renege look of jeans and black leather was everywhere. • Designer Ralph Lauren, known for using white preppy models in his advertising, switched to models of color to reflect the diversity of the latest fashion generation. • With step aerobics still hot, Reebok launched City Jam dance aerobics based on the hip hop dance moves of Hammer and Bobby Brown. • Low-fat dieting caught on across the country. A record number of eaters turned vegetarian. • Teens spent their money on Nike sneakers, Doc Marten shoes, X baseball caps, nose rings, Cross Colours clothing, Guess jeans, and Gap duds. • 13-18 year olds spent an average of $100 and saved $90 monthly. • Cola makers pitched new "clear" soft drinks. • Snowboarding and skateboarding fans grew in numbers. • Gameboy and its imitators stayed hot. Nintendo and Sega games spawned TV cartoon spin-offs. • Thousands more dared to participate in bungee jumping. • Smokers kicked the habit using a new nicotine skin patch. • Hair trend among guys: shoulder length and wavy. Hair trend among girls: long and straight. • The U.S. Postmaster distributed the Elvis Presley stamp. • A new form of social drinking arrived: smart bars served brain-nutrient "smart drinks." • Cars that became collector classics: 1970 Dodge Challenger R/T SE, 1973 Triumph TR-6, 1978 Pontiac Trans Am, 1972 Chevrolet El Camino. • Marvel Comics killed off Superman so that the man of steel could be resurrected at a future date for better sales.

Teens were addicted to the word "like," and used it everywhere in conversation as a preposition, suffix, and intensifier: "She is, like, so immature." "I was like, 'You are so gross.'" "He's so piglike." "Your mother is, like, going to kill you." Once you start, like, using it, it's a hard habit to break.

SHOOTING STAR

Disney Studio's Aladdin, with Robin Williams as the voice of the Genie, captivated the box office.

and live we watched it, read it, heard it

Rappers Ice T and Ice Cube got closer to movie stardom in the action thriller Trespass.

Grunge rock's Kurt Cobain of Nirvana and Courtney Love of Hole named their first baby Frances Bean. • Fans of country music linedanced to Billy Ray Cyrus's "Achy Breaky Heart." • The raving British beat "techno" invaded U.S. shores. • The Toronto Blue Jays won the World Series. • Basketball stars Larry Bird and Magic Johnson retired. • Football stars Joe Montana and Boomer Esiason modeled Hanes underwear. • The Dallas Cowboys defeated the Buffalo Bills in the Super Bowl. • Monica Seles, Michael Chang, Steffi Graf, Gabrielle Sabatini ranked among the highest earning tennis stars. • Hockey's Mario Lemieux and baseball's Barry Bonds signed $40-million-plus multi-year contracts. • New jack culture hit Hollywood via directors like John Singleton and Mario Van Peebles. • Kid's hit cartoon "The Ren & Stimpy Show" crossed over to adult hit. • Teens' top music choices: gangster rappers Ice T and Ice Cube, hip hoppers Kriss Kross, the likes of LL Cool J, TLC, Marky Mark and the Funky Bunch. Not to be outdone by pop star Neneh Cherry, rockers Pearl Jam, R.E.M., The Lemonheads, Nirvana, Morrissey, Ministry, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and U2. • Teens were chompin' popcorn at hit movies Aladdin, Home Alone 2, A Few Good Men, and Trespass. • Donna Tartt, 28-year-old writer, stole the book news headlines with a $450,000 advance on her first book "The Secret History." • Teens tuned to MTV for Cindy Crawford, Ed Lover, and Pauly Shore. • The younger generation ruled the tube as media and merchandisers pandered to their new economic power with teen-life shows "Beverly Hills 90210" with Luke Perry, and its spin-offs "The Heights" and "Melrose Place" with Andrew Shue.

Rap and country sounds jammed the airwaves with hit after hit. Garth Brooks rode high in the saddle as country's biggest star; Queen Latifah reigned as the heart and soul of rap.
